

BeeDay
Australia

True or False

Questions

1. A Bee will do a dance to tell the others where they found food.
2. Beekeepers use gas to make bees sleepy so that they can work in the hive.
3. Work in the hive is done by worker Bees.
4. Bees collect nectar on their legs.
5. Honey is made of pollen.
6. Male Bees are called Darnes.
7. There is only one female Bee in a hive.
8. Honeycomb has two uses, for their eggs and as food.
9. All Bees live in hives.
10. A Bee is attracted to the colour red in flowers.
11. Some Bees make their home in the ground.
12. The new Queen Bee flies off to start a new hive.

PLANT THREE
FOR-THE-BEES

Bee
Protection
Area

True or False

Answers

1. True. Bees do a dance to tell where they have found food.
2. False. Beekeepers use smoke to make Bees drowsy so they can work in the hive not gas.
3. False. Every Bee has a role to play in the function of the hive.
4. False. Bees collect nectar in their stomachs.
5. False. Honey is made of nectar not pollen.
6. False. Male Bees are called Drones.
7. False. All worker Bees as well as the Queen Bee are female.
8. False. Beeswax cells are made for eggs, nectar, pollen and honey.
9. False. The majority of Bees are solitary and live alone. Less than 8% are social and live in hives.
10. False. A Bee is mostly attracted to the colour violet, yellow, blue and white.
11. False. The majority of native Bees nest in the ground.
12. True. The new Queen Bee flies off to start a new hive.

